This past weekend, the Speaking Bobcats of Ohio University won the inaugural Carolyn Keefe Memorial Tournament at West Chester University. Dr. Keefe served as Director of Forensics at West Chester University for many years and was known for her professionalism and dedication to her students and forensics activities. This event brought together teams from across the region and West Chester alums from the 70s, 80s and 90s. We are proud to be the first champions of this tournament, named in her honor.

Please join me in congratulating the following students on their recent success at this tournament:
