The Speaking Bobcats of Ohio University won two tournaments in Michigan this past weekend, January 22-24, 2009. On Saturday, the Bobcats placed first at the EMU Tower Invitation with a commanding 376.5 points over second place BGSU (88 points) and third place Akron (87 points). On Sunday, they won again, this time taking first with 272.5 points with Northwestern in second (177.5 points) and BGSU in third (98 points). Another great weekend for Bobcat Forensics Excellence.

This coming weekend, the Bobcats host their annual Appalachian Swing tournaments. On Saturday, January 30 the team hosts the Interstate Individual Events Tournament as well as the Ohio Forensics Association Novice State Championships. On Sunday, we welcome schools to the Ohio Forensics Alumni Tournament. All events take place in and around Baker Center. Feel free to contact Dan West (westd1@ohio.edu) for more information, or if you are interested in judging.

Please join me in congratulating these amazing students on their recent success:
